Event Information

Singles

Level 3 singles: Race to 3 on the winners side / Race to 3 on the loser side. The break will be determined as follows: Coin Flip/Alternate.... Rack your own break.

Level 2 singles: Race to 4 on the winners side / Race to 3 on the loser side. The break will be determined as follows: Coin Flip/Alternate.... Rack your own break.

Level 1 singles: Race to 5 on the winners side / Race to 4 on the loser side. The break will be determined as follows: Coin Flip/Alternate.... Rack your own break.

Ladies singles: Race to 3 on both sides to the finish. The break will be determined as follows: Coin Flip/Alternate.... Rack your own break.

Team

We will have one handicapped level of play. You will play a 20 game score sheet. Each team has a handicap total... subtract the team handicap totals, the team with the higher handicap gets the difference added to their points the first round. A coin flip will determine who is the home team.

- In the event of a tie, replay the first match to determine the winner
- Any disagreements on a score sheet, the home teams score will be used.

General Information

All VNEA rules will apply, exceptions – the patch does not need to be used and an Eight Ball in on the break is a re-rack.

If you break your Que down and turn your back on the table you forfeit your match.

Spectators and inactive players should be respectful of matches in progress at all times.

Proper Behavior

Proper behavior, conduct and sportsmanship are required at all times. Decisions made by the Tournament Officials on disputes are FINAL. No physical contact or intent to harm other players or spectators is allowed on the tournament floor. In the event this occurs you will be disqualified from the tournament. No outside beverages will be allowed in the tournament area.
